

News Bits About Townspeople

By ARLINE VOLKMAR
Charlotte 1787-R

THE GREECE PRESS
Sept. 22, 1955 7

A graduate of Rochester General Hospital School of Nursing became the wife of a veteran, recently returned from service with the Army in Germany, in a ceremony in St. Charles Borromeo Church. The bride was Miss Diane Maureen De Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest De Cook of Burling Road, who was married to William H. Muthig, son of Mrs. Eleace Muthig of Chesterton Road. The Rev. Charles A. Bennett officiated.

Arline Volkmar

Miss De Cook wore Chantilly lace over satin, floor-length. Her illusion fingertip veil was confined to a crown and she carried white roses on her prayer book. Mrs. James Bloomingdale, sister of the bride, was honor attendant and Mrs. James Dimino, bridesmaid. They were gowned alike in aqua crystalettes and carried yellow roses. Richard Hugoboon was best man; ushers were Jack and Kenneth Volkmar and Eugene De Meyer. The newlyweds received best wishes of their guests at a reception at Island Cottage Hotel. After a motor trip through New England, Mr. and Mrs. Muthig will reside at 78 Chesterton Road.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Frattore of 440 Britton Road on the birth of their son on September 6.

Janet Stahl, Nazareth Academy senior, was recently elected president of the Catholic Youth Organization at St. John's Parish. She succeeds Janet Hill as head of the parish high school society. Also elected were Frederick O'Brien, vice president and treasurer, and Mary Lou Trau, secretary.

The Greece CYO plans a dance late this month and will assist at the Parish Fall Festival to be held in October.

The Rev. Frederick W. Bush is moderator of the group.

Miss Virginia Beth Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Mitchell of Bancroft Drive, became the bride of Marine Cpl. Frederick W. Tee Boon, in a recent ceremony in Holy Rosary Church. Cpl. Tee Boon, who is stationed at Parris Island, S. C., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Tee Boon of Ridgeway Avenue.

The Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay received the vows in a white floral setting.

The bride wore Chantilly lace and tulle with a sequin and pearl-trimmed crown and an illusion veil. She carried an all-white bouquet of pompon chrysanthemums and roses.

Miss Muriel Reich, maid of honor, wore turquoise crystalette. Bridesmaids, Miss Marlene Tee Boon, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Thomas Cornell, wore gold crystalette. All carried bronze chrysanthemums.

Vincent Frattle was best man. Ushers were Thomas Cornell and Ralph Irene.

A breakfast and reception were held at Island Cottage Hotel.

Residents of Bayberry Lane figured they had better get together to know each other better. That's why some 200 of them assembled at Durand-Eastman Park last Sunday afternoon for a family outing. Refreshments, entertainment and prizes were featured at the event under the chairmanship of William Dunn.

A baby girl, who will answer to the name of Wendy, was born at Highland Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Frey of 64 Northgate Road.

St. Charles Borromeo Church was the scene when Miss Doris Mae Lyon was married September 3 to Richard Edward Schwartz. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Raymond Lyon of West Parkway and the late Mr. Lyon; the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs.

Wilbur F. Schwartz of Florence Avenue. The Rev. R. A. Keleher officiated.

The bride wore white tulle and lace over satin, with a veil, and carried white roses. Her only attendant was Miss Barbara Roethel, who wore blue tulle over satin and carried yellow roses.

Richard J. Adamski was best man.

A Fall festival is scheduled at St. John Parish, according to the Rev. Donald E. Lux, pastor. The festival will be held in the School Hall October 6, 7, and 8.

Chairman of the committee is Edwin Wegman, with Sarto Stallknecht, co-chairman. The treasurers are Andrew Strong and Frank Gottry. Donald McCarthy is in charge of ticket sales.

Heading the various booths will be:

Hots, Bernard Mangold and Joseph Lester; refreshments, Elmer Rockwell; ring toss, Karl Wegman; stands, Edward Benoit; electricity, Thomas Butler; hams and blankets, Norman Richardson; candy, George Farrell; wine, Edward Cardinal; door, William Smith and Peter Gagliardi; publicity, Jack Walker and Thomas Waters.

Games and booths have been planned for young and old. Ample parking space will be found in the rear of the school and along Ridge Road.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wakil of 2457 Edgemere Drive on the birth of their son on September 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. De Roller, Jr., of 494 Harvest Drive are receiving the best wishes of their friends and neighbors for their little girl, born on August 31.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Hilda M. Burie of Morwood Road, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Burie, to Albert Kalcis of Bancroft Drive, son of John Kalcis.

The wedding took place September 3 at 1050 East Avenue, where the Rev. Thomas Steen of Asbury Methodist Church officiated.

The bride wore white lace and net, with a shoulder-length veil, and carried a white orchid with white chrysanthemums. The matron of honor was Mrs. Helen Smith, who wore blue chrystalette and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Bridesmaids were Miss Gwennie Kuebler and Miss Geraldine Cushing; who wore shrimp color and carried green and white chrysanthemums. Bonnie Lee Pettitt and John Bowen were flower girl and ring bearer.

Best man was Clayton Smith; the ushers were Frederick Dunham and Frederick Kuebler.

Best wishes for a speedy recovery to Mrs. Gerry Springer of Ridge Road West. Ruth was recently confined at General Hospital for 10 days after undergoing surgery and it is our sincere hope that she will be well on the road to recovery before very long.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baader of Leonard Road take great pride in announcing the arrival of their daughter, Dawn, at Strong Memorial Hospital on September 15. Dawn, the fourth child born to Mr. and Mrs. Baader, received a grand welcome from her sisters, Debbie and Coleen, and brother Dickie.

Greece Baptist Church was decorated with flowers and palms for the marriage of Miss Carol Graff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon F. Graff of Spencerport, to Seaman Ronald G. Birnie, USCG, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Birnie of Falleson Road. The Rev. Fred Dean officiated.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of rosepoint lace over satin en-train, with a fingertip veil. She carried white roses and lilies of the valley on a prayerbook.

Mrs. Clayton Swetman, matron-of-honor, wore petal pink crystalette. Similar gowns in American beauty were worn by the bridesmaids, Miss Iva Graff and Mrs. Harold Graff. All carried pink pompon chrysanthemums. Karen Birnie was flower girl.

Harold Graff was best man and ushers were Fred Graff and Gene De Cook of Burling Road, September 10.

The bridegroom is stationed at Summerville with the Coast Guard.

A baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burton C. Groth of 357 Wendhurst Drive on September 9.

Best wishes and congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. George T. Coleman of 201 California Drive in celebration of their 45th wedding anniversary and to Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Hare of 63 Moseley Road in honor of their 40th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Klafehn of North Greece announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane, to Richard C. Burgess, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Burgess of Hilton. Both Miss Kafehn and Mr. Burgess are graduates of Hilton Central School and Mr. Burgess also attended Alfred University.

Miss Marguerite Ellis Justice, of Mt. Read Boulevard, was married to Naval Airman Harry Edward Fowler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fowler of Latta Road, September 8 in Greece Methodist Church.

For the ceremony performed by the Rev. Leonard Ives, the bride wore a Chantilly lace gown and a crown of seed pearl embroidered tulle caught to an illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and carnations.

Miss Mabel Justice was her sister's maid of honor. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Jack Lee, and Miss Bonnie Soule were bridesmaids. Donald Johnson was best man. Ushers were Richard Fowler, brother of the bridegroom, and Gilbert Justice, brother of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Goethals of 1391 English Road are the proud parents of a baby girl, born September 12.

Out-of-town guests recently entertained by Mrs. Eleace Muthig of Chesterton Road include Helen Joswick and Helen and Emma Fay, of Utica; along with Marcus Ley and Edith Schulcheis from New Jersey. The occasion of their five-day visit was the marriage of William H. Muthig, son of Mrs. Eleace Muthig, to Diane De Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest

De Cook of Burling Road, September 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shaw of Almay Road announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Ann Shaw, to Thomas L. Burns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Burns of Longridge Avenue. The wedding will take place May 5.

Baskets of white gladioli decorated Mother of Sorrows Church when Miss Joan Margaret Thines was married to Herbert R. Franclemont. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Thines of Leonard Road. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ferdinand Franclemont and the late Mr. Franclemont. The Rev. Daniel B. O'Rourke performed the ceremony.

The bride wore Chantilly lace and net with a veil and carried white chrysanthemums.

Sister of the bride, Mrs. Raymond Young of Victoria, Tex., was matron-of-honor. She was dressed in green crystalette and carried orchid colored chrysanthemums.

Miss Dorothy Schrader, cousin of the bride, Miss Libbie Sorce of Los Angeles, Mrs. Alan Rodas of Walker, and Miss Betty Buehler of Dayton, Ohio, were bridesmaids. They chose frocks of coral color crystalette and carried orchid colored chrysanthemums.

The bride's sister, Elizabeth, and her brother, Jude, were flower girl and ring bearer.

Richard Franclemont of Buffalo, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Alan Rodas, Elmer Wolfert of Wapakah, Theodore Stronka and William Foley of Buffalo.

A reception was held at the American Legion Greece Post. The couple will be at home in 756 Dick Road, Cheektowaga.

Completing the annual two-weeks of training required of all reservists, is S/Sgt. Bernard L. Dispenza of 279 Sparling Drive. Sergeant Dispenza is stationed at the 2256th Air Reserve Flying Center at Niagara Falls.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Burton C. Johns, Jr., of 149 Duxbury Road on the birth of their daughter on August 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vogler of Florence Avenue have announced the birth of a daughter, Lisa Jean, on August 30.

STAND-OUT.

the miracle
TEXTURE PAINT
makes old walls new again
REPAIRS, REPAINTS and REPLASTERS
with one easy brush stroke

Goes on like a dream over almost any wall surface... hides wall defects—

14 beautiful decorator colors (plus white) washable,
smooth as velvet,
easy to apply...

 $3.98

a gallon (deep colors slightly higher) manufactured by
Bradley Paint Co.,
Connellsville, Pa.

CHARLOTTE SHADE SHOP
GEORGE STYMUS, Mgr.
4472 Lake Ave.
CHar. 1758
Open Daily 9 A. M. to 7 P. M.
Friday 'til 9

See
THE NEW '56 FORD
On Display
FRIDAY SEPT. 23rd
at CABIC & BADGE

3570 LATTA ROAD

New Cars and Trucks

Sales and Service
USED CARS

Charlotte 1544-R
Hilton 4461

